Pedestrian Crossing at Green Lanes/Frobisher Road Junction (by Queen's Head)

We request that Haringey Council, as a matter of urgency, p[rovide a pedestrian crossing over Green Lanes at its junction with Frobisher Road. We draw attention to the following facts:

(1) There are no such crossings over Green Lanes for 200 metres in either direction.

(2) Large numbers of people cross here. these include, among others, residents of Mountview Court who are taking their children to school in Falkland Road, and residents of the "Ladder" who use the bus services on Green Lanes in the direction of Central London.

(3) Traffic moves swiftly and pedestrians have to keep a look out in several directions at once. Over the years, a number of pedestrians have been injured here.
